

PERFORM with confidence,
SING with freedom!

DATE:
SATURDAY, JULY 18, 2009
10:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

LOCATION:
Hales Corners Lutheran Church (old)
5425 South 111th
St. Hales Corners, WI
(414) 529-6700 (church)

TUITION:
$150 per person (non-refundable, limited to 15 participants, includes a personal coaching session with Tamara Anderson)
Auditing, $50 per person
$6 Lunch, required for all attendees

REGISTER:
Mail in sign-up sheet also available at:
www.tamaraanderson.com
email: voxdoc@comcast.net
studio: (847) 546-5548
cell: (847) 533-5548

ABOUT THE WORKSHOP...

The Progressive Singer's Workshop, Master's Class, will help you to achieve new vocal and emotional freedom by unleashing your creative inner-self while improving the quality of your voice. Tamara provides a supportive environment with her sense of humor and light-hearted touch. Through her proven step-by-step instructions customized to your level of singing, you'll conquer inhibitions, triumph over vocal and mental barriers, and develop the power and beauty of your real voice - even if you never thought you could sing! This workshop is open to all ages, styles and levels of performers.

UNBLOCK YOUR INHIBITIONS...

Anyone, from public speakers and vocal therapists, to teachers and the simply curious, can benefit from this one-of-a-kind workshop. The results are instant and far-reaching. Teaching is provided in a non-threatening group setting with personal instruction, emphasizing technique, performance, and improved vocal production. There will be a Q&A segment at the end of the workshop.

LEARN MORE ABOUT...

Breath Support • Control and Power • Pitch • Range • Connecting High and Low Notes • Projection • Confidence • Emotion • Performance Anxiety • Stage Presence • Improvisation • Help for Damaged Voices • Selling the Song • The Psychology of Singing • Vocal Freedom • Stylizing • Phrasing • Harmonization • Stamina • Reclaim or discover your real singing voice.

TAMARA'S BIO...

Tamara is a seasoned and versatile performer known for her captivating live performances. She has taught recording artists across the spectrum, from performers on such indie labels as Decaydance, Fueled by Ramen, and IRIS Records, to those on board with major labels such as RCA, SONY, ATLANTIC, and A&M. Some of her clients include Dove Award Winners and Grammy Contenders; finalists on American Idol, America's Next Big Band and Rockstar. Others can be seen on VH1 Reality TV, MTV, Lionsgate, and Warner Brothers Films. Tamara's studios are conveniently located in downtown Chicago and the North Suburbs.

TESTIMONIALS...

"I worked with Tamara this year and how refreshing it was to see the passion and drive Tamara has with her clients. Her depth of knowledge and vocabulary is intense. Her vocal technique helped me during a recording session while struggling with the top end, within a few minutes I was cranking out 'high B-flats and C's'. I highly recommend spending some time with her!"

-- Mark Goff, founder of Provocals. Vocal coach to: N'Sync, Backstreet Boys, Creed, Britney Spears, O' Town and many more...

"I began working with Tamara in order to get my voice fully prepared for the studio to record our new record. I'd recommend any serious singer, with or without a voice teacher, to call Tamara."

-- William Beckett Jr., Lead Singer, The Academy Is...

"Tamara Anderson's workshops are always popular with our members. Her techniques receive rave reviews from vocalists and musicians, to aspiring performers and seasoned professionals. Results are seen during the session, and everyone takes home new skills they can use right away. I highly recommend Tamara's workshop to anyone who picks up a mic."

-- Barbara Wagner, Vice President of WAMI (Wis. Area Music Industry)

"Thank you for turning me upside down and making me think about the voice from a whole different perspective. The teachers and students really got a lot out of The Progressive Singer's Workshop Master's Classes you've taught at Columbia College."

-- Columbia College Faculty

"Tamara Anderson has a marvelous and soulful voice. She actually moved me so much during one of her performances that I cried. She is a very skillful and knowledgeable vocalist and teacher."

-- Katie Agresta, NYC vocal coach to Grammy Award winning stars